

Central Electric
Membership Corporation

A Touchstone Energy® Cooperative

Operation Round Up® supports our communities

Operation Round Up®, powered by voluntary donations from Central Electric members, put over $30,000 back into the local communities this quarter to provide assistance to worthy projects. Grants were awarded to the following nonprofit organizations:

4-H Lee County Commissioners - $1,000 for high school students to attend 4-H Congress.

Baptist Children's Home (Moore) - $2,300 to provide necessities for children in foster care.

Buddy Backpack of Harnett County - $2,300 to provide food for children living in low income homes.

Deep River Park Association (Chatham) - $2,300 for playground equipment.

Five N Two Food Pantry (Harnett) - $2,300 for fuel and truck maintenance.

H3: Health Healing Hope Medicine (Lee) - $2,300 for medication and healthcare.

Habitat for Humanity (Sanford) - $2,300 for electrical items used in building homes for low income families.

HAVEN of Lee County - $3,000 for playground equipment and supplies to create a child-friendly environment at the shelter.

Johnston-Lee-Harnett Comm. Action - $1,000 in rental assistance for clients who are housing-insecure.

Lemon Springs Volunteer Fire Department (Lee) - $2,300 for fire engine tools.

Sylvia Huffer (left), principal at Warren Williams School, and her team accept a check for stability chairs for children with special needs.

Partnership for Children/Families (Moore) - $2,300 for summer reading stations.

Spout Springs Emergency Services (Harnett) - $2,300 for a fire blanket.

Temple Theater (Lee) - $2,300 for student scholarships.

The CARE Group (Moore) - $2,300 for their "Tuesday's Child" program.

Warren Williams School (Lee) - $2,300 for stability chairs for children with special needs.