

Board election set by Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee for the election of the Central Electric Board of Directors met June 1 to provide a slate of candidates for the 2020 Annual Meeting of the Members.

Nominated for consideration are the following members:

Rebecca Cogan
District 1

Henry Outz
District 2

Henry Randolph
District 3

Tim Priest
District 4.

According to the Cooperative bylaws, any one hundred (100) or more members of the cooperative, acting together over their signatures not less than ninety (90) days prior to the meeting, may make additional nominations in like manner listing the nominees separately with respect to the Directorate Districts.

The deadline for additional nominations is July 2. Once the full slate of nominees has been determined following the conclusion of the additional nomination period, the list will be posted at the Cooperative's office at 128 Wilson Road, Sanford, N.C.

The election will be conducted via online and mail-in ballots Aug. 30 through Sept. 30 as a part of the Annual Meeting of the Members. Look out for more information on the Annual Meeting and director voting process in your September issue of Carolina Country.

Cooperatives are democratic organizations and the Board represents members like you in the decision making process. Director elections are a vital part of the cooperative business model.
